Academic Achievement, Professionalism, and Burnout in Family Medicine Residents

This article studied whether burnout in residency is associated with the attainment of critical educational milestones and found significant association between self-reported burnout and failing to meet expectations for professional conduct and accountability, but no relationship between burnout and medical knowledge as measured by lower in-training examination performance.

The Essentials: Negotiating Strategically, Women at Work Harvard Business Review Podcast

This episode of Women at Work discusses how can we get better at negotiating. We hear from a butter maker and entrepreneur about a sensitive deal she recently navigated and then use that experience to draw out the principles and practices essential to any negotiation. Ashleigh Shelby Rosette, a professor who studies and teaches negotiations, gives advice on achieving our objectives in a deal, no matter the context.
