

Period 1: Foundations

August	September	October	November	December	January	February	March
Genes, Molecules, and Cells		Structure of the Human Body	Integrated Functions of the Human Body		Pathology and Infectious Disease	Pharmacology
Clinical Skills I
Medical Jurisprudence					Clinical Epidemiology and Quantitative Research
Professional Behavior I
Ethical Foundation of Medicine		Foundations for the Community Engaged Physician

Strands:

- = Human Biology/Disease, Illness, and Injury
- = Clinical Medicine
- = Professional Development
- = Medicine and Society

Period 2: Integrated Organ Systems

April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December	January	February	March
Cardiovascular and Respiratory Systems	Hematopoietic and Lymphoreticular Systems	Break		Integumentary System: The Skin	Musculoskeletal Systems	Gastrointestinal System and Medical Nutrition	Endocrine System	Reproductive System	Renal System	Nervous System and Behavior I	Nervous System and Behavior II
Clinical Skills II			Clinical Skills II
Evidence-Based Medicine and Complementary and Integrative Medicine			System Based Practice							End of Life Care
Professional Behavior II			Professional Behavior II
Community-Engaged Physician I			Community-Engaged Physician I

Period 3: Clerkships

March-April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December	January	February	March	April	May
USMLE Study Time	Introduction	Pediatrics	Radiology/Neurology/Elective		Obstetrics and Gynecology	Psychiatry	Internal Medicine		Family Medicine		Surgery		OSCE
		Core Concepts in Medicine
		Community-Engaged Physician II

OSCE = Objective Structured Clinical Examination

USMLE = United States Medical Licensing Examination

For this academic year, students may be assigned Neurology/Radiology or a P4 elective

NOTE: Block diagrams for Period 3 and Period 4 represent required clerkships and courses only. This is not a representation of course.

Period 4: Advanced Medicine

May-April	April
Subinternship – 4 weeks	Clinical Medicine & Professional Development Capstone
Emergency Medicine Selective – 4 weeks
Elective Credits – 12 weeks total (students can enroll into 2- or 4-week blocks to meet this requirement)
Geriatrics Clerkship – 2 weeks
Neurology Clerkship – 4 weeks
Research Scholarship Course – 8 weeks (depending on progress in course)
Unassigned Time – 6 weeks
Clinical Medicine Capstone – Longitudinal Component
Community Medicine Practicum – Longitudinal Component
Community-Engaged Physician III – Longitudinal Component

NOTE: Block diagrams for Period 4 represent required courses only. This is not a representation of course sequence.